Ok, discussion:

- I am legitimately fearful to do this interview now because [REDACTED] knows where I'd be, the exact location, likely hotels that I'm staying at or the general neighborhood, and the time.

[REDACTED] has a history of making false claims of me stalking her. She submitted a frivolous police report with the LAPD against [REDACTED] and says that he was spotted outside of her residence in LA.

I'm worried that if I do this, the same night I am sleeping over at a hotel before the show, [REDACTED] will go to the police and say that she spotted me outside of her residence or some other crazy nonsense.

Not sure if I can do the show...

The producers should have never considered her and listened to my warnings from the first phone call when they said they were considering her and I begged them to choose somebody else.

thoughts?

You are going to crack up laughing maybe. Admittedly this is absurd... but necessary.

I just purchased and got rush-shipping for a Time Lapse camera to take pictures of me every few seconds while I am in Los Angeles. Going to leave on a night light when I go to sleep and keep it pointed at me overnight. Also will carry it around with me everywhere I go from when I get off of the plane to when I get on the plane to when I check in to my flight back home.

True but pretty sure her PhD is legitimate. But doesn't mean that she's ethical.

Even though I can't go deep until post-trial, I researched that woman (in in-private mode) (don't want to use her name in case Gmail picks it up) . . . she really strikes me as . . . unstable mentally. Do you think that is going to be her defense?

to Althea ▾

Jun 4, 2019, 2:16 PM

No idea. She's highly intelligent, though, and has a PhD. She gets quoted in a ton of articles. She's highly effective and these plans seem very thought-out, not haphazard, designed to tear down critics with accusations.

So I think that would be tough to argue.

The write-up about me was very undetailed. In reality she says that I threatened to rape her, am stalking her, reported to FBI and LAPD, etc etc, and tried to contact multiple journalists to pitch national stories about it.

Here's the original write-up for the lawsuit sent to his lawyers not in affidavit form that I need to modify this week to be more legalese.

I will read what you wrote and all of the legal stuff AFTER trial.

EVEN smart people can be very devious, evil, and even play the victim. Don't forget that! Maybe she's scheming and doing awful things BUT also planning to play the victim and rely on mental health or the like. That's just something I'm "smelling" if motions to dismiss and/or other procedural things fail and she has to face court some day . . .

I understand. All of the legal stuff has my head buzzing too much. In conjunction with the kitties and being too cold last night, and being super stimulated from all of the nonsense, I didn't get to bed until FIVE AM last night!! Sucks. A walking zombie today. But surely you can relate.

Thank you for the package and card, which I just received today (haven't been to the mail since Friday, so might have arrived earlier). [REDACTED] did you make that hat? If so, I will wear and wash it with great care. And the K cups are appreciated.

Hope you are both doing well [REDACTED] . . . you continue to be silent, so . . . will just hope you will someday share your reason with me . . .

Out for some (oddly sunny today) hiking. Will wear the hat for warmth!

And ... if the second attempt at the stent doesn't take:

If you can't have a duodenal stent

If a stent isn't suitable or if you are not fit enough to have a stent put in, your doctor will give you medication to manage the sickness as well as any other symptoms, such as pain relief.

Some people may be able to have their stomach drained to stop them being sick. This may be done with a nasogastric tube, which is a thin tube that passes up your nose and down into your stomach. Or occasionally a tube called a venting gastrostomy tube can be inserted through the skin into the stomach. This won't be suitable for everyone, and may not be used that often.

It's having the effect of stressing me out further. Let me read them in depth following my upcoming trip/trial. I'm overwhelmed. I've never, ever liked the way law is practiced in the US, so I need to avoid reading these (I previewed but won't dissect at this point). . . for now. Thank you for sharing . . . just by peeking, she seems utterly bizarre. And insane? Could that be a defense for her? Let's discuss AFTER. Glad, in your situation, you have clearly tons of people on your side, going through the same sorts of things.

Happy Hanukkah and Shabbat Shalom. I have a present for Hanukkah going to your house so hope that you're still there. Looking forward to catching up soon, been really swamped currently being targetted by the porn industry which has been mentally very taxing. Hope that you're well and talk soon.

For the trial on June 12, I will stay overnight somewhere in N. VA that Tuesday and Wednesday night, coming in through Dulles. I arrive around 4:30 pm ET Tuesday, and leave around 5 pm ET Thursday. Wednesday is in court.

If you want to be down there then and connect, I will get a room with two queen beds. Let me know by mid-April. Also, you are completely welcome to attend the trial with me, if you can handle seeing me as a defendant.

Love,
Your mom

ok..... OK OK OK lol.

I justified it because I said I need it until the program is written. In order to get the first draft done. To get an income again.

Now it's written. Now there's no reason to stay on it.

You're right.

Will start the wean-off process. Incoming withdrawal and headaches!

Okay, good, the more research on her, the better (oppositional research, at that).

NOT ONLY is she hurting the men she accuses (YOU), she is equally hurting women with FALSE accusations. Pisses me off on both levels (but more about you, of course!!).

About those other people . . . how, seriously, can you choose to trust going forward? What is your mechanism to do so?

Also, while [REDACTED] is there, maybe you two could play chess at night to unwind. Using the brain actually can help relax the brain.

Lastly, you need to get rid of all redbulls
